Nana Mouskouri live in concert at Komotini on Sat

Internationally acclaimed Greek singer and UNICEF Good Will Ambassador some the most successful female singer in Europe with over 100 million records, Nana Mouskouri will perform a live concert at Komotini, northern Greece, this Saturday night, while her performance will be broadcasted worldwide via satellite by Greek state television and the French network TV5.

In a press conference earlier in the week, Deputy Foreign Minister Evripides Karamanlis announced that during this concert, the government was launching a campaign to highlight the importance of eradicating poverty.

He said the government's goal was to build Greece's image as an "international leader" and to make sure that Greece's efforts for the eradication of absolute poverty and the Millennium targets, was not overlooked.

Mouskouri expressed "pride and gratitude" that she had been called to serve the foreign ministry in her country, noting that Greece had been on the 'darkest' of the world map had begun her career 40 years earlier and had been the one seeking aid from the world instead of being the one donating aid.
